Calgary Roadrunners 2006-2007 Cross Country Grand Prix Series

This series combines the essential ingredients of real running: varied terrain, natural surfaces and plenty of food. Each race is preceded by a kid's race about 1 km in length. The Confederation Park adult race in October is shorter, forming an excellent introduction to X-C racing for the novice. All races are followed by social mixing, soup and desserts. The soup is provided, you bring the dessert

Course Description:

Kids Race course is about 1 km long following trails with a few rolling hills.
The Cross-Country route follows trails along the valley and hillsides in West Nose Creek Park. Snow or mud may be encountered and perhaps an icy creek crossing, depending on the weather prior to race day. Shoes with a good tread or spikes are recommended.

Organizers make every effort to ensure the course is properly flagged. Listen to the instructions at the start of the race, pay heed to the race marshals and keep your eyes on the flags. It's easy to get off course by following the runners ahead rather than watching the flags.
